

Seminar Overview

Aims, Objectives & Expected Outcomes

Indian Institute of Technology
Guwahati

Srishti Institute of Art, Design & Technology

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

the Learning Network on Sustainability

Seminar Aim

To develop pedagogy framework

for

S.PSS applied to Distributed Design (DD) and Distributed Manufacturing (DM)

for

the Indian context.

Pedagogy Framework

- Aim of delivering knowledge
- Content for the same
- Mode of delivery
- Mode of evaluation

The Indian Context

- Wide spectrum of sectors
- Different levels of development - socio-economic-political conditions
- Cultural diversity
- Geographic diversity

Seminar Objectives

- To collect Indian case examples relating to S.PSS, DD, DM.
- Understanding the challenges, gaps & opportunities.
- Develop pedagogy framework for various target groups.
- Action points for pilot course with undergraduate and graduate Design students.

Seminar Structure

Day 1

- Keynotes
- Brainstorming workshops on thematic areas (Health, Education, Manufacturing, Livelihoods)
- Development of framework for pedagogy

Seminar Structure

Day 2

- Keynotes
- Panel Discussions
- Brainstorming workshops on pedagogy framework for different target groups
- Presentation and discussion

Seminar Strategy

- Sustainable Product Service System Design
- How DD and/ or DM
 - Challenges us?
 - Benefits us?
 - Operationalise it?

Way Ahead

- Video recordings of the sessions and reports of the proceedings will be available online at <http://www.lensin-india-seminar.com/>
- A framework for pilot courses will be also available online.
- Two pilot course will be conducted next year.

Thank You